Ganske-Van Der Leest Wedding

Fresh-cut flowers decorated the altar of St. Anthony's Catholic Church in Drayton Valley as Wilhelmina Johanne Van Der Leest and Carl Arthur Ganske exchanged marriage vows in an afternoon double-ring ceremony on Friday, August 19th. The

The honeymoon trip took in Jasper Park. For her going away trip the bride wore a white polka dot sheath dress

Rev. Fr. Klug united the couple in the bonds of holy wedlock. Mrs. Sheehan was organist. The bride was dressed in floor-length white net over satin, bridal gown, with pearl and sequin fringed collar and full length of the gown. Her oval cut shoulder length veil was caught to a pearl and sequin studded headpiece. Her bouquet was of pink roses, attached to white satin streamers.

The brides sister, Miss Joan Van Der Leest, was her bridesmaid. She was dressed in three-quarter length blue and silver gown, with a bouquet of pink carnations.

Attending the groom was the bride's brother Mr. Leo Van Der Leest. Ushers were Mr. Howard Ganske and Mr. Don McLelland.

Following the beautiful wedding ceremony a reception was held in the Elks Hall. To receive guests, Mrs. Ganske, the Mother of the groom, wore a blue and black flowered dress, with pink carnations and white accessories. The mother of the bride, Mrs. Van Der Leest, chose light blue satin dress with pink carnations and white accessories. A dance in the hall followed the reception.

and white accessories. The young couple will reside in Drayton Valley where they are building a house.

THE Editor's Viewpoint

LUNG CANCER AND CIGARET SMOKING

Medical and scientific evidence has now conclusively proved that the fast rising incidence of lung cancer and the vastly increased consumption of cigarettes are very definitely tied together. It has been definitely proved that cigarette smoking can be a cause of lung cancer and statistics show that lung cancer is increasing rapidly on the North American continent.

An alarming number of cigarette smokers are now very young, much below the legal age of sixteen when they can legally buy cigarettes. Apparently there has been an increasing indifference among teenagers of tobacco, also, to the apparent youthful ages of many of the girls and boys who buy cigarettes.

The law quite plainly states, that cigarettes shall not be sold to those under the age of sixteen, yet boys and girls under the age of sixteen may be seen smoking and apparently they have no trouble purchasing their own cigarettes.

They'll play safe when left with a trained sitter

Don't give fire a place to start!

LION'S CLUB MEETING
The Drayton Valley Lions go together for the first of their twice-monthly meetings since six weeks recess was called during the summer months.
A financial report of the Lodge was given by Lion Jim Cumis. Mr. Cumis also gave a report on the Blood Donor Clinic which is slated for Drayton Valley for September 12th. Mr. Cumis also announced the coming Red Cross Fund drive for this area.

The dinner meeting was held in the Drayton Valley Hotel Dining Room. A very good attendance was recorded for the first meeting of the 1959-60 season.

Chamber of Commerce Meeting
Some 40 members of the Chamber of Commerce met in the Cardium Room for a Dinner Meeting to consolidate ideas on the proposed banquet to be held for the official opening of the Town Hall.

Tentative date set for the banquet was October 14th. The matter of holding a two day trade-fair in conjunction with the Town Hall opening was also discussed.

Meeting A Complex Problem
The modern world, with its fast pace and its many tensions, has proven an ideal setting for the development of what people frequently call "nervous stomach."

It has been estimated that about one out of every ten Canadians suffers from people who at some time have experienced such symptoms as heartburn, indigestion, acidity, and other forms of gastric distress. Such conditions, actually, do not involve the stomach alone but other parts of the gastrointestinal tract as well. And because tension, anxiety and emotional stress play a vital part in the development of these ailments, medical researchers sometimes refer to them under the general heading "emotional gastrointestinal disorders."

Treatment of gastric disorders is complicated by the fact that frequently, both the physical and emotional symptoms require attention. To meet this problem, scientists have developed Neuro-Centrine, a unique combination of some of the most potent and available for emotional and nervous disorders.

One ingredient, reserpine, belongs to the category of medications known as "tranquilizers." Derived from the Indian "snake root" called Rauwolfia, this drug acts on the central nervous system, producing a marked calming effect. It is being utilized in hospitals to treat certain psychoses and anxiety states, as well as hypertension and other conditions of nervous system.

Another ingredient of the new drug combination is a powerful sedative, phenobarbital. The third, and probably most important component, is a chemical agent known as Chlorine. Tests have shown that by blocking nerve impulses, Chlorine reduces painful spasms of the gastrointestinal tract. In addition, it controls pain by reducing excessive secretion of hydrochloric acid which erodes stomach tissue and produces the ulcer pain.

Doctors also believe that Neuro-Centrine may prove useful in the treatment of nervous conditions as night cramps in elderly people, nervous sickness and emotional disorders associated with pregnancy.

Drugs such as Neuro-Centrine are the direct result of a better understanding of the human body and its complex functions. Such understanding has come as a result of the development of such orders are extremely complex in nature and therefore respond best to a combination of agents, each of which is designed to treat a different facet of the disease condition.

form a volleyball league, if possible. The desire, the enthusiasm, the interest, however, must be there to some extent if the venture is to be a success. Those are intangible things which no human being can install and develop strictly on his own. It is the age old story. "You can carry water to a house -- but you cannot make him drink. Thus it may be with the volleyball question for the time being at least.

Football - So Far - So Good

The one thing that I have tied to organize since I have been among you, and met with desire success has been the fine autumn sport of football. I was approached by my board shortly after I arrived here on the possibility of getting "Junior Football" going in some shape or form in Drayton. After a slow start, things started to pick up and I have not only met with desired success, but with success beyond my fondest dreams. I owe this success to the enthusiasm and desire of Harold Townsend and the men that he has recruited in this work. Thanks to Mr. Townsend sufficient money has been raised to buy fine equipment for whatever amount of teams that we may be able to organize. Presently we have approximately sixty boys working out and if possible we would like to reach the ninety mark. Equipment would be available for that many boys if there is that much interest in "Autumn Madness."

We hope to pick teams in the near future and form two inter-town leagues, one PeeWee League and one Bantam League. Just how many teams will be in a league will depend on the turn-out. For our games, it is hoped that we will be able to use the legion ball field after the last baseball game has been played for the season.

I am putting a good deal of time and work into football and I am going to continue to do so not only because it is my favorite sport, but mainly because I have found the enthusiasm, the interest, the determination and the incomparable leadership that I sought in this field I think that rugby football will grow and develop in Drayton Valley however, if I can find the enthusiasm, the leadership and the interest in other fields of recreation as I have found in "Junior Football" the recreation program of Drayton Valley will be one long story of success. Right now I would say that you can expect to see some very fine football played in Drayton Valley before November rolls around.

Letter To the Editor:-

SPORTSMANSHIP
In reply to a very interesting letter that appeared in last week's edition of this paper, I would like to add the following. Referring back to the "dictionary definition" of a

"Sportsman" I will quote - "Sportsman - one who is fair and honorable in sports."

Our very sports-minded contributor claims the audience's reaction guides him in the type and calibre of game he will play. But has our good sport ever stopped to consider where the audience reaction and mood stems from. Could it be from the type of sportsmanship that is displayed on the field before it. If any audience is to witness - a display of dirty tactics to win a game, a team that will not meet its opponent half-way; a team that will dispute a referee's decision for no other reason than to show its power; that through selfishness of the player will not obey the their coach or manager but will for personal glory try and be the centre of the team. If spectators are to ever hear players or a team condemn and find fault in each other rather than give each other encouragement and praise, then this team must expect to receive a very unfavorable attitude from the spectators. I have participated in many audiences where booing and name calling has taken place, but I have yet to see an audience that will even boo a true sportsman. Let us try and remember that it is the soldier that it out of step with the army not the army with the soldier. If there is any doubt in the mind of those to whom this letter may apply, then I would ask them to be so kind as to refer to a recent incident that involved out of town sportsmen and our now famous local "good-

INDUSTRY GROWS ON ELECTRICITY

You could say that Industry needs Vitamin "E" to grow - "E" for Electricity. An indication of any country's industrial growth can be measured by the amount of electricity generated and used. Alberta's rapid industrial growth over the last few years has been envied by many, and this growth continues. The Brown family, on a tour of Calgary Power's facilities, are seeing one of the ways that electricity helps the oil industry - working together to provide employment and prosperity for Alberta. They realize now, as never before, that such industrial progress could not have been possible without abundant electricity, planned for and developed in advance by Calgary Power. To-day, Calgary Power's engineers are planning for the demands of Alberta's industries in the future. Helping Industry to grow is part of our picture of service.

Warning Issued on Shooting

The R.C.M.P. request the co-operation of parents in preventing indiscriminate shooting by young boys and teenagers adjacent to the cities and other heavily populated areas.

A number of complaints are being received continually regarding this shooting in the rural areas, usually within five or six miles of the cities and some near the heavily populated beaches and holiday resorts.

Some farmers have suffered heavy financial loss by reason of cattle and horses being killed or wounded and several motorists have had car windshields or windows broken by stray shots fired in the direction of the highways. This lawless practice endangers the lives of the travelling motorists and their passengers.

It is felt that parents have a responsibility to warn their children concerning this indiscriminate shooting and as most is done by juveniles they should consider their financial responsibility in case of accidents caused by stray bullets and deliberate shooting.

The greater number of these complaints are received during the school vacation period.

Calgary Power Man in Indian Chief

In a momentous glad some 200 people, Indian and white, gathered to witness the recent acceptance of Mr. G. A. Gaherty as a new chief of the Stoney Indian. The unyielding face of Mount Yam Nukle (Wall of Rock) overlooked a performance of the Chicken Dance by the Indian tribesmen. As the intricate steps and drum beats of the dance ended, the dignified ceremony began.

"The Tribe's teepees will always be open to you wants, bed and food will always be there to satisfy, cold will be procured from your own robes and furs, bones and bows and arrows will be yours to take if you have none and the enemy pursue you. All is yours in time of stress that you may take in your desire, any brother's teepees."

With these words, former chief Jake Two Young Men pledged the obligations of the Stoney Indian Tribe to their new brother and Honorary Chieftain, Chief Powerful Waters. The Eagle Bonnet, with its graceful plumes was then placed on the head of Mr. G. A. Gaherty by Chief Isaac Two Young Men, Johnny Bearpaw and Dan Wildman.

Replying to the words of the Stoney Chiefs, Chief Powerful

Waters pledged in the name of the Queen who was the friend of the Indian's forefathers that, "We in peace and harmony join together in the work of progress to make this land a better place for all".

As was expressed by several of the distinguished speakers, few were more deserving of this honor in the name of progress and selfless ambition for a land. We could not more fittingly name be bestowed on him than the one chosen by the Stoney Indians.

Mr. Gaherty has worked for the cause of the planned power development in Alberta since joining Calgary Power Ltd. in 1920. The man behind the design, construction and operation of most of the Company's power plants Mr. G. A. Gaherty is also a director of the Atomic Energy of Canada Ltd., and Trans-Canada Pipelines Ltd. He has been the recipient of several Doctorate of Laws degrees. He has served Calgary Power as Chief Engineer and General Manager, Vice-President, President, and Director, and this year became Chairman of the Board of Directors. His vision and engineering skill have been credited with many power facilities in the Province which have strengthened its economy, particularly since the Second World War.

Mrs. Nat Hunter, wife of one of the Indian Councilors, bestowed the headpiece of the tribe on Mr. G. A. Gaherty. From now on Mr. Gaherty will be known as Princess Blue Kipping Waters among her Stoney Indian friends. Following the ceremony, the new Chief extended an invitation to everyone to break bread and smoke the pipe of peace. Among those taking part in the western-style barbecue were the guest speakers who had paid tribute to Mr. Gaherty. These included Superintendent of Indian Affairs Mr. Pugh, Judge Manley Edwards, George Goodheart, Mrs. Gordon, Sergeant J.N. Baxter of the R.C.M.P., and Mrs. H. E. Down, an honorary Princess of the tribe.

'Q' Fever

Discussion on the incidence of "Q" fever, a pneumonia-like illness accompanied by intense headaches and high temperatures highlighted the wind-up sessions of the fifteenth annual International Northwest Conference on Diseases in Nature Communicable to Man. Some 70 scientists from Canada, the United States, the Philippines and Africa attended the three day meeting, held August 24-26 at the Banff School of Fine Arts, under the sponsorship of the Alberta Department of Health.

Papers presented Friday showed that "Q" fever, an unusual type of rickettsial infection that affects man, many domestic and some wild animals, is sometimes associated with ticks but now appears to be maintained in dairy cattle herds entirely independent of ticks or other insects.

The disease was discovered in 1921 and is now known to be present in almost every province in Canada and state in the U.S.A. Human infections are associated with close contact to dairy cattle.

Dr. G.R. Whelan of the Alberta Veterinary Laboratory in Edmonton reported finding evidence of the disease in Alberta dairy herds. No human cases have yet been reported, he said.

Further information on ornithosis was presented by Dr. H. G. Carlson of the Alberta Veterinary Laboratory. He reported finding low incidence of infection in Alberta turkey flocks. An associate, Dr. H. W. Vance presented a paper on the sudden appearance of a strain of salmonellosis in Alberta in 1959. Other scientists reported similar findings across North America but offered no reasonable explanation for the sudden appearance of the strain.

A disease organism originally discovered in Alberta in 1947 was discussed by Dr. William L. Jellison of the Rocky Mountain Laboratory in Hamilton, Montana. Haplosporidia, discovered at the University of Alberta by Dr. E. Silver Keepling, is a fungus-like organism which causes lung infection in small wild animals. The fungus has not yet been proven a cause of human disease although Dr. Jellison said there is reason to believe it may be associated with disease whose cause is not yet recognized. Dr. Keeping presented a paper on the life history of another fungus organism, Endogone. She reported that the organism is associated with roots of plants, and stated that it apparently is an important food factor for beetles and wild mice.

Dr. W.R. Gledit, Director of the State Department of Health, Seattle, Washington, was named president of the association for 1960-61. Dr. E. L. Bowman, director of the British Columbia Division of Laboratories in Vancouver was elected vice-president. An executive member at large is Dr. J.R. Walker, State Department of Health, Berkeley, California. Secretary for the next year will be Dr. A. D. Hew, United States Public Health Service, Greeley, Colorado.

The 1961 conference will be held August 21-23 at Fort Collins, Colorado.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR (Cont. from Page 8, Col. 8) spurs. I would ask them to review in their minds the audience reaction. Let these same people tell me how often they have seen as outside team come into a small town to compete with a home team and get support of a crowd consisting mostly of hometowners.

I am fully sympathetic with our last week's contributor for not being able to have a "real satisfied feeling" after a game, but before condemning the audience I think we should take stock of ourselves and our team mates and be sure there is no room for self improvement.

Spinner Discs

"Regarding the recent Regulation passed by the Highway Traffic Board in connection with hub caps, I wish to advise that the whole purpose of the Regulation was simply to protect the public," said Hon. Gordon Taylor, Alberta Minister of Highways today. "We have no objection to any type of spinner or wheel disc, providing it does not represent a potential danger to other persons."

The Regulation reads, "An ornament or device known to the trade as 'Spinner wheel discs' where the spinner is equipped with blades, fins or spikes protruding outward from the wheel is likely to cause injury to persons that may come in contact with same."

"It should be made abundantly clear that the Regulation does not forbid spinners of any kind unless they have protruding spikes that could cause injury to pedestrians or the property or person of others," said Mr. Taylor.

Crime in Your Community

"Armed Robbery" is the subject of the current booklet prepared by the Royal Canadian Mounted Police under the general title of "Crime in Your Community".

The booklet is the fifth in the series which was initiated several years ago in the belief that the volume of crime in certain categories could be greatly reduced by acquainting the owners of business establishments and the public generally with crime in a simple manner by which they might safeguard their property, their goods and themselves from the criminal before the intervention of the police became necessary.

Made up of illustrations in silhouette with brief explanatory captions, the booklet is directed at the more lucrative targets of the armed robber, such as banks and business establishments but discourages any notion on the part of the private citizen that he is immune from this type of crime.

The booklet recommends the instruction of employees in points of physical identification and the exercise of vigilance on the part of all personnel to enable them to detect the loiterer, the suspicious looking character, the bogus workman, i.e., the potential hold-up man. It outlines certain precautions by which robbery may be averted, or at least made more difficult, such as safeguarding excess cash not discussing pay-roll or other cash deliveries in public places, the frequent changing of routes and messages engaged in such deliveries and methods of escorting messengers.

The use of "bait-money" is advocated. That is, the retention in a special section of the cash drawer of bills whose serial numbers have been noted. Victimized establishments are advised to retain hold-up notes, with as little handling as possible and to warn employees to touch nothing pending the arrival of the police. Simple warning signs are also discussed as the advertisement placing of certain types of alarm systems.

A section of the booklet is devoted to a comparatively new system of identification by means of film strip. Each strip contains one of some 160 hairlines, 200 sets of eyes, 200 chins, 40 ears, 32 noses, 6 pairs of glasses and various styles of hats and wearing apparel. The individual transparent strips are superimposed to form a composite image. Witnesses are asked, for example, to select a strip bearing a hairline resembling that of the suspect and to this is added the selected chin, eyes, nose, ear, etc., until a likeness of the suspect is complete. R.S. (Mac) McLean New Rotary President

The Drayton Valley Rotarians and Rotary Arms met on Wednesday, August 31st in the Club Café and our going President Howard Pickup turned over the reins of office to his successor President McLean. He has been one of the club's most active members.

Three new members, Art Dixon Jack Kerr, and Karl Wahl were inducted by Club Padre Albino Wright and received by President Mac McLean. Incoming Treasurer for 1960-61 is Ed. Feathers and Incoming Secretary is Howard Cathra.

Rotary Activities Report

In May of 1958, a park of approximately 3 acres was taken over by the Rotary Club to be made into a children's playground and town park. The ground was plowed up and cultivated, stones were picked and hauled away by the truck-load. After several times of cultivation and picking out the stones, we were able to seed it with a good grade of lawn seed at a cost of approximately $140.00. Watering was then a problem however, but with the use of the town fire truck and Rotary work parties, we were able to get a good catch of grass.

Work parties were held 14 times, 4 coasters, 6 ten-tooters, 2 monkey bars, 1-25 foot May pole with 6 hoops to it and a 20 foot slide were built at a cost of $200.00 for bolts, chains, etc. Pipe and other materials were donated by oil companies and supply firms.

A parking lot along the east side was graded with pipe bumper rail and 300 feet of front steel fence was started.

In September 1958, a 10'x15' wading pool was started, excavated was done and some cement was poured.

At Christmas time, about 30

hampers were given out to needy families, the cost being $40.00 per hamper plus toys for the kiddies.

The club also bought decorations for Christmas trees for the outside and inside at the local hospital.

1959: The Rotary Club is the sponsoring body for the local boy scout camp. Early in 1959 it was found that the Scout Hall needed a new outer wall, new insulation and a linoleum floor. A number of members helped out with the laying of this and repairs to inside wall at a cost to the Club of $98.50.

Tenders for outside wall were called for and a club member put in a bid at actual cost for the job. This amounted to $1,789.00 of which the Rotary donated $600.00. Other club's donations to the Scout Hall amounted to approximately $200.00 and a small tool shed and storehouse was put by the pool for park equipment.

Part of the cost for pool supervision was paid for by the Club at a cost of approximately $200. The cost of a one month's supervision course at Red Deer for one boy and girl was paid for by the Club at a cost of $47.50 each.

September: A new kids' outdoor skating rink was planned in park area by the Recreation Board. Rotary members surveyed the ground and put in grade stakes. Mainline Co. donated graded this down with club members helping to give grade levels until complete. Some used shower-room fixtures were bought by the Club for this project at a cost of $86.50.

October: A fund raising scheme was put on and some 30 Turkey Cakes were put on sale with ticket prices ranging from .014 to $1.00 with a turkey as the prize for lucky numbers. With the money raised, we gave out 10 Christmas hampers at a cost of approximately $40.00 each.

December: A donation of $50.00 to each family was given to 5 families who had lost their all by fire. Hospital tree decorations were bought again this year. During December a Christmas party was held for Rotary members and families with a Santa Clause and a gift for each child. 30 couples and around 50 children attended.

At a meeting of Jan. 6, 1960 it was voted that we sponsor and equip a boys' hockey team. More equipment, ice planting and other things were planned for the summer of 1960.

1960: Park clean up work parties continued whenever weather permitted. Playground equipment was repaired, 100' pool painted, 90 trees were planted at a cost of approximately $100.00. 40 yards of loam was hauled in. Mowing grass, hoeing weeds, watering, cleaning of the pool and many other items of park maintenance kept Rotarians busy during the early part of the year.

And it was not all Rotarians who entered into this effort. The Rotarians are ever grateful to the many friends of Rotary who gave their time so freely to help provide playground facilities in Drayton Valley.

YOUR FIRE DEPARTMENT

This week your fire department would like to bring your attention to that inevitable pile that elicits a fine from the fire department. It's only good housekeeping to get rid of them, and much much safer.

These little piles grow from small repair projects around the house, and no matter how careful the housekeeper as they seem to spring up in an unending series and are almost impossible to get rid of. But for the sake of keeping the fire hazard in your home at a minimum they must be got rid of. When left to sit and grow they form possibly the greatest menace you have in your home, and the cause of more small fires than any other factor.

We urge you to clean out these piles often, and especially to watch for open paint and cleaning fluid cans, gasoline, wet greasy rags or old clothes, and anything else that might ignite by spontaneous combustion. It's only good housekeeping to get rid of them, and much much safer.

Alex Korotuk ran an ad for a lost transistor in the P.N.A. recently. A newcomer to Drayton Valley Mr. Konik did't hold forth too much hope of ever seeing his ninety dollar transistor radio again. However, he had not reckoned with the undisputed power of the press as represented by the P.N.A.

Within an hour of the time the P.N.A. hit the streets via its very efficient newboys, Mr. Konik had his radio returned to him. Some of the reports we have received of response to ads in the P.N.A. have been truly fantastic. One man, away out west of Rocky Rapids advertised a stove for sale several months ago. Within a day or so of the time the ad appeared he could have sold not just the one stove, but several had he had them.

WOODRUFF FUNERAL

Funeral services for Mr. Charles Kenneth Woodruff of Round Valley were conducted from the Drayton Valley Church of God at 2:30 the afternoon of September 13th. Mr. Woodruff was killed in a road construction accident near Nordegg on September the 8th. He was twenty years of age.

Mr. Woodruff was born on March 25th, 1940, and lived and went to school in the Round Valley district where his father has a farm.

He leaves to mourn their loss his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Woodruff; one brother, William and three sisters, Alberta, Shirley and Louise.

Pastor J. Wueff, of the Church of God conducted the funeral services. Interment was in the Drayton Valley Municipal Cemetery, Sylvan Lake Funeral Home was in charge of funeral arrangements.

Pall bearers were Mr. Eddie Westphal, Mr. John Norton, Mr. Neil Norton, Mr. Tony Blackwell, Mr. John Blackwell and Mr. Adrian Bielecki.

The exequies which the young man was held by his many friends and neighbors was demonstrated by the many lovely floral tributes

FIRE DEPARTMENT

Last Saturday night we had a small fire; however, judging from the number of cars that were milling around in front of the fire engine I'm sure everyone was there so I won't describe it.

Fortunately it was a small fire which was under control by the time we finally got there. It served to pull out a couple of rather important matters which could be brought up.

The first thing is how to report a fire---there's not much to it but it's small that it be done right if your fire department is to get there quickly as possible. Just tell the operator you want to report a fire and she will connect you to the right party. Then give your name, the name of the occupant of the home in question in a case where you are calling for someone, the exact or type of fire, and most important, give a good, concise description of the location. We must have all that information if we are to respond quickly and efficiently. Incidentally, I received one of those "Fingerlip Selectors" in the mail this week you will notice that it gives a number to call in case of fire which is wrong and we ask that you report it out.

The second point is this: When that siren goes, volunteer firemen come speeding from all parts of the town to the fire hall and thence to the fire. If their route is impeded by road hogs, slow moving traffic, or just curious bystanders, vital time is lost, and accidents can occur. Please, we ask you to make way for these men, and for the fire truck. Remember, it could be your home and your family that's burning up, and the first minutes of a fire are the ones that count the most.
